

Skater's Code of Conduct

Skating is a competitive and individualized sport which requires safe and courteous behavior from all participants on and off the ice. Skaters need to be aware of one another, and react predictably to ensure their own and others' safety. Each skater is responsible for being aware of and practicing the rules of etiquette and safety noted below.

Due to insurance requirements, only registered Skate Canada members are permitted on the ice, except in a medical emergency.

Food, drink, and gum are not permitted on the ice; plastic water bottles are acceptable, but must be left at the boards. Glass bottles are prohibited.

Spectators, including parents of skaters, may watch quietly from the stands or seating area not by the boards, but must refrain from conversing with or offering directions to skaters on the ice. (If a skater needs more direction, the coach should be consulted after the session, and a plan developed to help the skater become more independent.)

The gates in the rink boards must be kept closed while a session is in progress, to ensure the safety of skaters on the ice. Sitting on the boards is not permitted.

Skaters must clear the ice promptly at the end of each session.

Behavior on the ice

Skaters must always look both ways when leaving the boards.

Skaters are expected to be skating at all times while on the ice, and to get up promptly after a fall in order to keep pathways clear for other skaters.

The ice surface should be used for practice, not for conversation. (Working in small groups with coach's approval is acceptable.)

When practicing routines, skaters must learn to maneuver around other skaters and still do jumps, spins, and footwork successfully. The skater whose music is playing has the right of way. Calling out "Excuse me!" or "Heads up!" will alert other skaters to move out of the way.

Skaters should use the center of the ice, between the blue lines and away from the boards, for practicing spins. This allows room at the ends of the rink for preparations for jumps, and for other skaters to maneuver around the spinning skater.

Foul language, yelling, and abusive or aggressive behavior, including kicking holes in the ice, are prohibited, and will result in loss of privileges.

I have read and understood the Code of Conduct outlined above, and agree to abide by it. I understand that failure to abide by these guidelines may result in disciplinary action by the Club.
